CLOSED SESSION MINUTES

The Anson County Board of Education went into closed session at approximately 4:02 p.m.

Board members present were Lisa Davis, Bobbie Little, Mike Turner, Beulah Pratt, Frank Liles, Carol Ann Gibson, Russell Sikes, Marilynn Bennett, and George Truman. Also present were board attorney Mike Flake and Allison Schafer with the North Carolina School Boards Association.

The board discussed the 15 applicants for superintendent and agreed to interview 4 of the applicants.

The board authorized the North Carolina School Boards Association to contact those candidates and set up interviews for May 23, 2013, beginning at 9:00 a.m. The board decided to hold the interviews in the main administrative boardroom of either Richmond Community College in Hamlet, NC or Wingate University in Wingate, NC.

The board then discussed the interview questions it wished to ask the candidates. The board also decided to have a presentation question during the first round of interviews. The board declined to pay for the candidates' travel expenses for the first round of interviews.

After addressing the superintendent interviews, the board discussed with board attorney Mike Flake the issue of reinstating drug dog searches. The board also discussed what to do about a broken water main in one of the elementary schools.

At 5:10 p.m., Russell Sikes made a motion to go out of closed session, Frank Liles seconded, and the board voted unanimously in favor of the motion.
